

Typical View of the Spex Instrumentation software.

This screen display the GUI and Data Viewer from Bigdog.

This screen display the GUI and Data Viewer from Guidedog.

The IRTF Facility workstation support a dual screen displays, enabling the observers to easily control both systems.

The local display for guidedog is visible, allowing observer to easily monitor the status during guiding.